AT THE SHOWS

Photo #1 - W. Bruce Parnell and wife Martha looking over the trophy winner at the first show of the season at Lake Worth. Mr. Parnell is a past president of the American Hibiscus Society and is now active in organizing a new chapter in North Miami.

Photo #2 - Mrs. Owen Craig and Mickey Doxsee of Fort Myers looking over the Eunice Taft Memorial Award won by Trail Nursery at the James E. Hendry show. This award was given for the best seedling of the show.

Photo #3 - Mr. & Mrs. Michael Deddish of Coral Gables are looking over some of the top bloom at the Sunrise chapter show. Miss Margurite Ellis of the Sunrise chapter is showing them what makes up a good winner. Mr. & Mrs. Deddish were visiting the C. W. Grants, sweepstakes winners at the show.

Photo #4 - Estelle and Art Kanzler of the Homestead Nursery admiring their silver trophy won at the Lake Wales show. How does that crazy hibiscus hat Art is wearing grab you?

Photo #5 - The Tri-Color and Trophy winners table at the Sunrise Chapter show in Lake Worth. This was their first official judged show.

Photo #6 - Mr. & Mrs. Kent Duve of Boca Raton admiring their silver trophy won at the Lake Wales show. They won the best old timer category with an "American Beauty".

-oOo-

STENOGRAPHER: A girl you pay while she is learning to type while she is waiting to get married.

ADOLESCENCE: The age when children start bringing up their parents.

SPONSOR: The company that makes the impossible TV programs possible.